COMPTROLLER FLAGG'S REPORT.

SEMI-ANNUAL REVIEW OF OUR EXPENSES.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The Board met last evening, President BARKER in the Chair.

"THE MAYOR MAKES THE MONEY GO."

Among the papers submitted, was a communication from the Comptroller in relation to the carriage hire of the Mayor and Chief of Police, in compliance with a resolution of the Board of Aldermen, adopted by Alderman BARNES, and passed on the 14th August. The Comptroller in his reply, presents a statement prepared by his Auditor, showing that the same paid for such carriage hire from January 13, 1856, to August 5, 1856, is $1,457 25, and that the sum drawn for the Mayor under the head of contingencies, up to the 30th December, is $999 [illegible] The Comptroller denies any authority in the Mayor or in any legislative act, for drawing this money, and suggests that the Board place for the Mayor. The Mayor's facilities for city travel had, he thought, rendered the sum drawn for such expenditure little excess those for carriage hire, authorized by the charter of 1853, and by other acts of the Legislature, until the Courts decide as to the right of the Common Council and the Departments to tax the people for carriage hire.

Alderman BIX thought this would be much better understood if printed; and he was the more anxious to have that done since a communication had been published in most of the papers to-day, in which the Mayor had stated his anxiety and determination to relieve the tax-payers as much as he could. He believed the Mayor did not a mean man to object to having his public acts known, although he was sorry the Mayor was so sensitive about his private affairs. Alderman VARIAN wanted to have the gentleman from the Seventh District (Mr. BIX) say for what purpose the motion was made. If done for electioneering purposes, he wanted to have the fact stated. At any rate, he thought it rather small-potato business.

Alderman BIX denied that his motion was dictated by any such motive. It was the right of the people to know the particulars of the bills which they had to pay.

The document was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Alderman NORDHEIMER presented a resolution calling on the Comptroller to report whether or not any sum has been paid by the Common Council, since the year 1850, for Chestnut-street, North River, for the use of which bonds are issued, and such other information as will enable this Board to take action on the subject—the sign at Washington market being in such a dilapidated condition.

The Committee on Roads presented a report recommending that the ordinance for regulating the Fifth Avenue be amended by inserting therein the authority for the appointing of an Inspector of said work; and that as amended, the ordinance and resolution should be passed. Concurred in.

IN FOR AN UP-TOWN POST-OFFICE.

The Special Committee to whom had been referred the statement of a Committee appointed at a public meeting of citizens of the necessity for the establishment of an up-town Post-Office, reported as follows:

1st. That an up-town Post-Office should be established at or near the junction of Sixth-avenue and Broadway.

2d. And that a copy of the resolutions be transmitted to the President of the United States and the Postmaster-General, and that the members of Congress from this City, and the Senators from the State, be requested to use their influence to secure this improvement.

The report was adopted.

"ANOTHER GOOD MAN GONE" INTO OFFICE.

The resolutions by Mr. Henry H. Howard, Relative of Thomas, of Lawrence Cleary, John Lenahan, James B. Kerrigan—the famous (Councilman)—and Wm. Lodge, as temporary clerks in his office, were unanimously confirmed.

The Committee on Roads reported in favor of a concurrence in the resolution to have Sixty-third-street, from Ninth to Tenth avenues, worked as a County road.

The Committee on Railroads reported in favor of extending the track of the Sixth-avenue Railroad from Forty-third to Fifty-ninth-street. The report was adopted.

Several papers from the Board of Councilmen were taken up and disposed of.

The annual report of the Comptroller was submitted, and, on motion, laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

The Board finally adjourned till Friday at 5 P. M.

BOARD OF COUNCILMEN.

The Board met last evening pursuant to adjournment, President JAMES F. PIDGENEY, Esq., President, in the Chair.

Among petitions referred, was that of sundry property-owners for a sewer in Eldridge-street. Also of James Rogerson, that the Commissioners of Repairs and Supplies advertise anew for estimates for building Tompkins' Market. Also, of sundry property-owners on the Eighth avenue, for rebuilding of the Eighth-avenue sewer. Several other resolutions and petitions were referred to appropriate committees, among which was one to fill up and regulate the streets from Ninth-south to Twenty-fourth-street, North River. Reports from the Board of Health were referred to a committee of the whole house. A petition from the Eye Infirmary for a grant of $1,000 was referred to the Finance Committee.

A resolution to request the Comptroller to inform the Board by what authority Capt. Bennett, of the Coral Fish, was allowed drawn pay as Lieutenant of Police in the Third Ward, was laid over.

A resolution was received from various persons against paying Fifty-third-street, between Tenth-avenue and North River.

The Board then went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. VAN RITEN in the Chair.

A resolution to award the Counsel of the Corporation $1,000 per annum for Clerk hire, was favorably reported upon by the Committee, after which the Board adjourned.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

This Body met last evening, but adjourned till Monday next without transacting any business.

Expenses of the City.

The following is an abstract of the Comptroller's Semi-Annual Report of the Expenses of the City Government:

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE, COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, CITY OF NEW-YORK, July 31, 1856.

To the Common Council:

This report is intended to embrace the financial operations of the City Government for twelve months, commencing on the 1st of July, 1855; thus covering six months of the year 1855, and the same number of months of the year 1856.

The Croton Bond, by the act, Chap. 382, of the Laws of 1855, is empowered to make all contracts for the construction of sewers. The expense is provided for by an assessment on the property benefited by the construction of the sewer. The present year there is a distinct appropriation of $386,000 for this object, and accounts have been opened with each sewer contractor for.

Under the ordinance, the Comptroller has borrowed, on Revenue bonds, since the first of January last, the sum of $3,040,700, in anticipation of the tax which the law should be ready for collection on the first of September, and from which the Revenue Bonds will be redeemed as they fall due. The City has paid out, in the twelve months preceding first of July, $2,210,000 of the Revenue Bonds of 1855, and $800,000 of those of 1856; thus paying $4,860,000 of this temporary loan.

The provisions of the tax laws require about eight months of the calendar year before the taxes begin to come in, and nine or ten months before very large sums are received; hence the necessity of using Revenue Bonds to anticipate a large portion of the expenditures, which will begin to come into the Treasury in September, and a considerable portion of which will not be wanted, but for the payment of warrants of the calendar year. At the close of the year 1855, there was in arrear $1,661,790 20 of the tax assessed in the preceding July.

The current expenses of the calendar year of 1856, when the year closes, will have been paid by about $2,000,000, procured by the issue of Revenue Bonds, as before stated, and about $2,000,000 derived from the payment of taxes.

Besides the payments on account of the expenses of the City Government of $4,188,695 81, as shown in that table, the following sums, in addition, are given in statement No. 3, as "Trust Funds," but which sums are also derived from taxation, viz:

|---|---|
| Interest on Revenue Bonds, Tax | $1,272 16 |
| Common Schools for Year | 216,787 [illegible] |
| Common Schools for City | 1,075,812 [illegible] |
| To pay debt for Building Loan Stock | 50,000 00 |
| Redemption of Bonds | 99,000 00 |
| Unpaid of 1855 | 16,462 98 |
| This makes a total of | $1,761,[illegible] |

Expended in twelve months preceding July 1, 1855, which is paid by taxation, beyond the sum paid by taxation for the ordinary expenses of the City Government, as shown in statement No. 1.

APPROPRIATIONS, EXPENDITURES AND RECEIPTS.

The whole amount of appropriations for the calendar years 1855 and 1856; also, the expenditures for six months of the year 1855, from July 1 to Dec. 31, and six months of the year 1856, from Jan. 1 to July 31; also, in the last column, the total sums expended under the various heads for the twelve months preceding July 1, 1856, to wit:

| | |
|---|---|
| For six months of 1855 | $1,257,016 41 |
| For six months of 1856 | 2,904,021 30 |
| Total | $4,161,037 71 |

The total sum which has passed through the City Treasury, on account of "Trust Funds," for the twelve months preceding the 1st of July, 1856, including the sum paid on the Central Park, amounts to $11,948,474 73

| | |
|---|---|
| Being for six months of 1855 | $2,973,834 88 |
| And for six months of 1856 | 1,994,046 85 |
| Total for 12 months | $11,948,474 73 |

The receipts and expenditures for the City Government, including "Trust Funds," for twelve months preceding July 1, 1856, are as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Expenditures | $15,427,011 53 |
| Receipts | 14,864,303 77 |
| Excess of Expenditures | $562,707 76 |

INCREASE OF TAXATION.

The expenses of the City and County of New-York are provided for by an annual tax; the revenues of the Corporation, and all receipts for property sold, being pledged to the public creditors for the payment of the City debts. A mere increase of taxation, therefore, when the rapid growth of the City is considered, is not of itself evidence of unfaithfulness of the public agents, or of extravagance in the public expenditures. This applies with equal force to the expenses of the Courts, the Board of Education, the Almshouses, Police, &c. The Common Council and the Departments, since the organization under the Ordinance of 1849, have no excuse for any material increase of expense, except the addition of thirty-eight members to the Board of Councilmen, and those departments which are connected with the construction of buildings and machinery in the Fire Department, the repair and cleaning of the streets, and other works which increase with the extension of the City.

Whilst the increase of the City may be referred to as a justifiable cause for a considerable increase of taxation, it is sufficient to justify an increase of more than two millions of dollars in the short period from 1851 to 1856? The levy of 1851 was based mainly on the expenditures of 1850, and included $740,000 for arrearages of 1850. The valuations comparing 1856 with 1851, are as follows:

|---|---|
| 1856 | $512,989,679 94 |
| 1851 | 412,831,581 [illegible] |
| Increase of valuation | $100,157,597 [illegible] |

[illegible] the increase of the assessed valuation of the [illegible]

[illegible] noticed from the increase of 1856 over 1851, we put the rate of increase on the tax levy would be about [illegible] per cent., being 10 per cent. less than is stated above.

This still shows the increase on the tax levy, at over per cent. more than the increase on the assessed valuation. Even this shows extravagance, if not something worse, in the cost of supporting the Government. With the enormous increase of assessable property from year to year, a frugal administration of the Government, after making due allowance for the increase of expenses, before the City ought to come to a general increase of taxation, would be a matter of congratulation to the tax-payers, as the wealth of the City increases.

The Commissioner of Streets and Lamps, in his report of the 4th of August, estimates the cost of cleaning the streets, for the year 1856, for arrearages of 1855. This estimate was made by the Comptroller in settling the arrearages of 1855, but these payments were made on the rolls of Mr. EMERY for expenditures not included in the amount of arrearages returned to the Comptroller by Mr. ERLING in the estimate of November last. This matter is explained in a report from the Finance Department to the Board of Councilmen, July 11, 1856, page 215. The preceding statement, showing the expenditures for the contract year, from July, 1855, to July, 1856, covers the period during which this expenditure of $24,000 was made by Mr. ERLING. There was put in the appropriation for arrearages, as reported to the Comptroller by Mr. ERLING, $145,000. When the accounts of Mr. ERLING came in for payment, they exceeded this sum by $24,000, as shown in the report of Aug. 11, before referred to, and there was no alternative but to pay the difference from the appropriation for 1856. But, as before stated, as the year commences in this report is from July, 1855, to July, 1856, it has no bearing whatever, and cannot estimate the heavy draft from the Treasury beyond the amount for which the work was to have been performed by the contractors.

The pretence that the streets cannot be cleaned by contract has no foundation, in reason or common sense, to rest on. The Croton Aqueduct Department has no difficulty in constructing sewers by contracts made on sealed bids. Their works are much more intricate and difficult than those for cleaning the streets. It was said, in 1855, that the oil lamps of the City could not be lighted by contract, and yet Mr. BELLOWS agreed to furnish the oil, employ the lamp-lighters, and do for the City for $52,700 what had previously cost $100,000 annually. He has faithfully done the work for two years in a very satisfactory manner, at a saving of about $50,000 per annum to the City. When this work was done by the Commissioner of Streets and Lamps, in 1853, it required eighty men to light the lamps. The contractor performed the same work with forty. This is the only assignable reason for not doing the work by contract.

Whilst the Commissioner of Streets and Lamps, after making a lowance for the payments on old contracts, and to Alderman BARNES, has expended a much larger sum than was ever before paid in twelve months for cleaning streets, he has paid into the Treasury, for manure, only the sum of $6,945 79 in the year for which this report is made.

When HENRY ARCHAMBAUD expended $300,000 a year for cleaning streets, he paid into the Treasury about $50,000 for manure. In 1851, Mr. GEMENY cleaned the streets at a cost of $170,000, and paid to the Treasury $50,000 for manure sold.

THE REMOVAL OF DEAD ANIMALS FROM THE STREETS.

Mr. MORTON, who was a subordinate in the office for six years, entered on the duties of his appointment as the head of the department in January. In the first month of his term, he made a contract with responsible bidders, to remove the dead animals, offal, &c.; the contractors engaging to pay annually into the City Treasury, the sum of $4,000, instead of drawing therefrom $50,000, more or less, as had been done for the preceding five years. This contract, if carried out in good faith, will make a saving to the tax-payers of the city of $345,000.

MODE OF ARREARS.

In accordance with the Charter, the Clerk of Arrears has made repeated requisitions on the Street Commissioner for the arrears of assessments in his hands over twelve months, but as yet all the assessments confirmed by the Common Council from January, 1855, to July, 1855, are yet unreturned by the Street Commissioner, and the Deputy Collectors appointed under Mr. EMERY are at the present time making collections on the same, in total violation of Section 7, before quoted. (a.)

The City thereby suffers a loss of interest, for by section 15 of the same act it is provided that interest shall hereafter be charged at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum, on all arrears of taxes and assessments returned to the Clerk of Arrears from the time they become due until paid, and consequently those who neglect to pay their assessments for twelve months, and until the same are returned to the Clerk of Arrears, are chargeable with twelve per cent. extending back to the time of confirmation, thus adding five per cent. to the legal rate of seven per cent. provided payment is not made to the Collector of Assessments within twelve months from the date of confirmation.

In the case of the assessment for extending Canal and widening Walker-street, a striking instance is presented of the consequence of this neglect.

This assessment was returnable to the Clerk of Arrears on the 1st of April, 1856, and is still unreturned. Since that period the Deputy Collectors of Assessments before mentioned have received on this assessment, for principal, the sum of $215,503 86, and for interest the sum of $1,699 20.

Had this been returned to the Clerk of Arrears as provided for by the law, the interest received would have been $8,921 75, or $1,221 86 more than has been received by these Deputies. This is only a single case.

INSPECTORS IN THE STREET DEPARTMENT.

In the Semi-annual Report of the Comptroller for 1856, a statement was given of the sums paid to Inspectors in the Street Department, amounting for twelve months to about $80,000.

On the 10th of March, 1856, the Committee on Streets, in the Board of Councilmen, reported as follows: "That they have given the subject full consideration, and are of opinion that a strict supervision over contract work in the Street Department is highly important and requisite, and necessary to the faithful performance of the same, and, therefore, submit for adoption the following resolution:

Resolved, That the resolution adopted by the Board of Councilmen, Oct. 2, 1855, prohibiting the appointment of inspectors, on contracts under the Street Department, be and is hereby repealed, and be it further

Resolved, That no one inspector shall be appointed on more than one piece of work, until the same is completed.

This resolution was approved by the Mayor, April 28, 1856, and on the 29th of May, one month following, the bills of inspectors paid were eighty-six in number, amounting to $3,417 25, the bills dating back about three weeks, or one week after the passage of the rescinding resolution.

A requisition of the Street Commissioner, for July 22, 1856, gives the names of the inspectors, the work on which they were employed, and the amount paid to each. The total amount is $3,921 50, and the number of inspectors 197.

The amount of revenue received by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, for the payment of the City debt, the sources from which it was derived, and the application of the same, is as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Balance on hand, July 1, 1855 | $12,011 59 |
| Received during the year ending June 30, 1856 | 1,006,605 51 |
| Total | $1,019,017 10 |

Of this amount there has been invested as follows:

|---|---|
| Paid for Revenue Bonds | $544,022 97 |
| Paid for City Stocks | 177,279 60 |
| Paid for redemption of Pub. Site Building Stock | 315,000 00 |
| Paid for advertising, &c. | 1,096 56—$1,037,379 13 |
| Excess of drafts over receipts | $18,362 03 |
| Deduct for outstanding warrants | 76,219 16 |
| Advance from the Sinking Fund for the payment of interest | $[illegible] 19 |

Receipts and expenditures for the year ending June 30, 1856, on account of the Sinking Fund, for the payment of interest on the city debt:

| | |
|---|---|
| Cash on hand July 1, 1855 | $482,751 84 |
| Received during the year | 1,450,945 86 |
| Total | $1,933,697 [illegible] |
| The sum paid for Interest, &c. | 1,932,765 69 |
| | $991,932 14 |
| Deduct amount advanced for payment of debt | 248,834 12 |
| Cash in Bank July 1, 1856 | $743,098 02 |

The amount of the permanent City debt on the 1st of July, 1856, and also the amount of stocks and other securities held by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, for the payment of this debt:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| The total amount of debt is | | $14,150,966 00 |
| The Commissioners have purchased from time to time, and held as an investment, a portion of the stock which forms part of this debt equal to | $4,060,929 00 | |
| They also hold Revenue Bonds | $17,300 00 | |
| Bonds and Mortgages | $70,704 54 | $4,168,933 54 |
| Deduct amount advanced from Sinking Fund for payment of Interest | | 248,834 12 |
| | | $3,918,099 42 |
| Amount of debt unprovided for July 1, 1856 | | $10,232,866 58 |

On the permanent stock debt of the City there was paid off May 6, 1856.

The present amount of the debt for the construction of Docks, &c., is $1,154,000.

The amount of six per cent. stock, issued in payment for the awards in the Central Park, $1,441,000, redeemable in three years from the assessments levied against the property benefited by that improvement. $600,100, of five per cent. Central Park stock has been issued for the same object, and is redeemable in 1866.

The interest on the above stock is payable by an annual tax.

The stocks and securities held by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund for the redemption of the City debt, July 1, 1856, after deducting the amount advanced for the payment of the City debt, the balance is $5,320,093 42.

Statement No. 16 shows the amount of Revenue Bonds issued during the year ending June 30, 1856, viz.:

| | |
|---|---|
| From July 1, 1855, to Jan. 1, 1856 | $888,600 |
| From Jan. 1, 1856, to July 1, 1856 | 5,440,705 |
| Total | $6,329,305 |

This does not include a special loan made in May last by an issue of Revenue Bonds of $440,000 which were paid off and canceled in June and July.

CENTRAL PARK.

The act of the Legislature which gave authority to the Corporation to acquire land for the Central Park, provided for paying the awards to the owners of the land taken, by an issue of stock, at an interest not exceeding five per cent. per annum. The report of the Commissioners appointed by the Supreme Court to award damages and fix the amount of assessments for benefits, made their report at the close of the year 1855, and it was confirmed by the Court, on the 5th of February, 1856. On the 29th of the same month the Common Council passed an ordinance authorizing the Comptroller to borrow the sum of $2,000,000, and to issue therefor transferable certificates of stock, bearing interest at the rate of five per cent. and the principal reimbursable at the end of 25 years. The law for taking land for the Central Park provided for a portion of the cost by an assessment for benefits on lands around the Park. The total amount thus assessed $1,600,000. As the law for acquiring the land for the Park decided that payment should be made therefor immediately after the confirmation of the report; the ordinance provided for the issue of $1,600,000 of six per cent. stock, under section 190 of the general act of 1813. This was done to anticipate the collection of the assessments, and to enable the Corporation to pay immediately.

On the 29th of February, the Comptroller gave notice for a loan of $1,600,000, the bids to be opened on the 7th of April last. The cash bids for the five per cent. loan were only $30,000. Subscriptions, however, were made in several cases by persons who had awards. The six per cent. stocks have been made available for the payment of awards, although the Comptroller was disappointed in the payment of about $700,000 of the cash bids for this stock. A copy of the notice for the loan is annexed, marked No. 20.

Arrangements were made on the 15th of April, notwithstanding the failure of the five per cent. loan, for a deposit in the United States Trust Company, as explained hereafter, of the full sum awarded to many of the owners. The number of these awards, a list of which is annexed, No. 21, is —, and the total sum paid to the Trust Company, under the order of the Court, was $[illegible] 79.

The number of awards settled and paid at the Comptroller's Office, is 450.

The amount and manner of these payments were as stated below, viz:

The total amount awarded for damages to parties whose lots were taken, was $5,111,426 30.

Settlements have been made with parties having awards amounting to the sum of $3,361,440 25 to July 1, 1856. Of this there has been paid in

| | |
|---|---|
| cash | $1,154,540 25 |
| In Five per cent. stock | 695,600 00 |
| In Six per cent. stock | 1,461,000 00 |
| Total | $3,361,440 25 |
| The mortgages held by the City on these awards amount to | $149,984 00 |
| The amount awarded to Corporation | 896,984 75 |
| Making whole amount settled and in hands of City | $4,408,409 00 |
| Deduct this from whole award | 5,111,426 30 |
| Leaves balance unsettled | $1,703,017 30 |

The preceding statement shows that of the $5,111,426 30, awarded for the cost of the land in the Park, the Finance Department has settled and obtained the consent of $3,408,409 50, leaving an outstanding balance of $1,703,017 30. This sum is due to individuals for awards. Provision has been made for the payment of interest on the stock issued, and on all the unsettled awards, at 6 per cent. from the 5th of February to the 1st of August. And the sum of $162,000 is added to the tax levy of 1856, for this purpose.

The amount of mortgages to the City on lots in the Central Park, $149,984, forms a portion of the sinking fund for the payment of the previous City debt; and hence these mortgages cannot be canceled without providing an equivalent for the sinking fund. This is done in the 3d section of the ordinance before referred to, and in due time an equal amount of five per cent. stock will be issued for these six per cent. mortgages, to be held by the Commissioners of the sinking fund. This matter, however, will not be closed at present, as it may be deemed advisable in the arrangement necessary for paying awards, to pay the sinking fund in a stock which does not extend beyond the period fixed for the payment of the old debt.

The sum of $896,984 75, awarded to the City for common lands unsold, and lying within the limits the Park, may probably be considered as having been set apart by the act of the Legislature and the concurrence of the Common Council for a public purpose, and this public use may be regarded as a remuneration to the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty for the land thus taken. The sinking fund ordinance of 1844 embraces (sub. 2) "The net proceeds of all sales of real estate, when sold."

As the whole Park is specially pledged for the payment of the debt created for the acquisition of the land, and as this debt is to be blended with the other stock debt of the City, no exception, it is supposed, can be taken to this disposition of the award to the City.

In making provision for a loan to pay off the balance of the Park Debt, $1,703,017 30, we must not lose sight of the fact, that the assessments for benefits on account of the Park, are pledged for the redemption, at the end of three years, of the five per cent. stock issued to the amount of $1,600,000. The sum already paid into the Treasury on account of these assessments, and used in the settlement of awards is $497,012. It is thus seen that to the extent of there payments on assessments, we have had the advantage in settling awards of double the sum provided, that is, we have had the use of the sum assessed, and the proceeds of the stock issued to anticipate this very sum. If the 5 per cent. loan had been taken, the issue of 6 per cent. stock in anticipation of the collection of assessments, might have been graduated by the collections made; but the pressing demands of those having awards compelled the Comptroller to use all the available means within his reach, belonging to the Park Fund.

AWARDS TO "UNKNOWN OWNERS."

The Commissioners of Estimate on the Central Park made awards to "unknown owners," to the aggregate amount of $[illegible] 78. The Comptroller has caused to be prepared for the Trust Company a copy of the several awards to "unknown owners," certified by the County Clerk, and paid to the Company in six per cent. Revenue Bonds, the whole amount of these awards, equal to $[illegible] 78.

The total sum paid to "unknown owners" since 1856, and notwithstanding the Park award, is $[illegible]

The outstanding warrants issued by the Finance Department, on account of "street opening," and handed over to the Street Department, amount to about one thousand in number, ranging from one dollar up to five thousand.

Respectfully submitted,
A. C. FLAGG, Comptroller.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

One Death at Fort Hamilton—One New Case in Brooklyn—Eight New Cases at Fort Hamilton—One Death and Three New Cases on Governor's Island.

The fever seems to be rapidly subsiding in the infected district of Brooklyn, but is on the increase at Fort Hamilton. As will be seen by the official reports below, there were two deaths and eight new cases at the latter place, and only one new case and no death in Brooklyn, yesterday.

The new case in Brooklyn is in John-street—a small street running from Washington-street along the water front to the Navy Yard wall. The patient's name is KENNEDY. He was employed in the Navy Yard.

Brooklyn Board of Health.

The regular daily meeting of this Board was held yesterday morning. Present, Mayor HALL presiding, and Aldermen OAKLEY, WALSH, SHAW, HUFFMAN, BAGEMOHN.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Several nuisances, reported by the Health Wardens, were ordered abated.

Permission was granted to land cargo of bark Antagonist, from Buenos Ayres, with exception of hides.

REPORT OF HEALTH OFFICER.

Dr. WENDELL presented the following report:

I have to report one case of yellow fever in John-street, near Hudson-avenue; visited the patient yesterday, in company with Dr. COUSSARDE. His condition is critical. NAME—KENNADY.

M. WENDELL, Health Officer.

The bone boiling establishment, at the foot of Ewen-street, heretofore reported, on motion of Alderman OAKLEY was declared a nuisance. An order for its abatement was issued.

EXPLAINED.

Mr. CLOUGH, against whom a complaint was made for permitting a dead horse to remain on his premises in the Eighth Ward, an unreasonable length of time, appeared before the Board and stated that he had duly notified the Police at the Eighth Ward Station-house.

Alderman VAN BRUNT stated that the contractor, or his agent, for removing dead animals, called at the Station-house the same day, and was told that there was nothing for him, and that the fault lay with the doorman for not giving the information to the contractor.

Mr. CLOUGH was excused from blame.

LOCATION FOR A DEAD-HOUSE.

The Mayor presented a lease of a portion of the Citizens' Union Cemetery as a location for a dead house.

The question was raised, whether the Board had the power to become party to a lease, which was discussed pro and con for some time, but finally the Mayor was requested to perfect the lease.

The Board then adjourned.

AT GOVERNOR'S ISLAND.

In Fort Columbus, yesterday, there were three new cases and one death from yellow fever.

There are 11 other cases, all convalescent.

New-York Commissioners of Health.

The only arrivals considered yesterday were the following:

Brig Gneseard, from Sierra Leone, Africa, laden with a cargo of palm-oil and ginger, and one passenger, arrived at Quarantine on the 3d ultimo. All hands are reported well and port of departure healthy. On the recommendation of the Health Officer she was allowed to proceed to the City after purification and an observation of five days, providing all remain well.

Brig Florinda, from Cardenas, arrived Aug. 21, with all hands well. The petition desired to be allowed to come to the City. Petition denied.

Bark Albertina, from Cardenas Aug. 13. The Health Officer is of opinion that she should not be allowed to proceed to the City short of thirty days. Concurred.

Aggregate number to whom medical services and medicine were rendered gratuitously during the month August: males, 3,525; females, 4,668. Nativity—3,548 patients were born in the United States, and 3,590 in foreign countries. Partial results—Sent to Hospital, 276; died, 161. The principal causes of death were cholera infantum, marasmus, scarlet fever and small-pox. The prevailing diseases chiefly affected the digestive and cutaneous systems; among the most important were cholera infantum, dysentery and small-pox.

☞ It was a misapprehension on the part of Mr. CAUSCH which led to the statement, yesterday morning, that no more funds were needed at Fort Hamilton. We have received a communication from Mr. CAUSCH explanatory of the matter, for which we have not room.

THE MURDEROUS ASSAULT AT JAMAICA PLAIN.—Mr. HENRY SWARTWAY, whose skull was fractured by being struck with an iron crane by JOHN BANCROFT, a negro, on Saturday afternoon, lingered till this morning, when he expired. Mr. SWARTWAY was a gentleman about 64 years of age, and had held several town offices. He had acquired a fine property by active business in this city, but retired to spend the closing years of his life on his own estate. The negro who committed the assault came home on Sunday evening and delivered himself up to the authorities, by whom he was immediately carried to Dedham Jail. He said that he did not know what he was about at the time he did the deed. He was maddened by liquor and did not even know who the person was whom he struck. However true his statement may be, he is evidently a very dangerous character.—Boston Transcript, 3d.

The Persia, from Liverpool about noon Saturday, 23d ult., arrived at her dock yesterday morning. As already notified, (per Niagara via Halifax,) the Persia arrived at Liverpool on Friday evening, the 15th, making her voyage from New-York, in net time, 9 days, 2 hours, and 40 minutes from port to port; or 8 days, 23 hours, 30 minutes from Sandy Hook to the Bell Buoy.

The Ericsson arrived at Liverpool on Sunday morning the 17th, and sailed at 10 o'clock A. M., Wednesday, 20th, for New-York, with twenty-five passengers.

The Alps arrived at Liverpool 4¼ o'clock A. M., on Thursday the 21st.

The City of Baltimore, from Philadelphia, arrived at Liverpool 4:10 P. M., of Wednesday, the 20th. On the 10th, in lat. 42° 58' N., lon. 60° 30' W., spoke the Kangaroo, from Liverpool for Philadelphia.

The steamer Khersonese would sail from Liverpool afternoon of Saturday, the 23d, for St. Johns, Newfoundland, and thence to Portland, Maine, and Halifax.

The loss of the steamship Tecora is reported—it is not the Tecora of the Cunard line.

The Ericsson took out three days' later papers, but they contained very little news, the main items being as follows: A report that the King of Naples intends to abdicate in favor of the more liberal Prince of CALABRIA, (report doubtful.) Spanish affairs quiet, and free import of breadstuffs invited into Spain until June, 1857. Madrid advices do not throw any light on the political future. Nothing from France, excepting accounts of the celebration of the Emperor's fête. Italian affairs unchanged. From the East the only item of intelligence conveyed by the Ericsson is that the Russians announce that Kars, Ismael, Reni and Kelia will be evacuated and given up within the six months specified by the Congress of Paris.

The substance of the news now brought by the Persia is that the British Parliament is further prorogued until November.

NAPOLEON is at the baths of Biarritz; he is reported to be urging the claims of Prince PLANTAGENET BONAPARTE to the throne of the Dunedin kingdom; and to be engaged in considering what title to bestow on the American descendants of Prince JEROME. The harvest in France is considered fully an average.

The Government of Holland refuses assent to the principle of arbitration before a court in lieu, recommended by the Paris Congress. The citizens of Antwerp have been holding in close to celebrate the King's long and peaceful reign.

There is no additional news from Spain, the apprehensions of scarcity continue, and the difficulty with Mexico is said to be by no means settled.

It is reported (but doubtfully) that France and England have sent an ultimatum to Naples, demanding concessions, and threatening, if refused, to withdraw their representatives. The King agrees to concede in part, but the ultimatum demands more.

The Prussian corvette Dansic was attacked on the coast of Morocco by Riff pirates; eight of the crew were killed and seventeen wounded, including among the latter Prince ADALBERT of Prussia. The dead were buried at Gibraltar, and Prussia invites France and England to join her in an expedition against the barbarians.

Turkey is preparing a new draft of a general commercial treaty, more favorable to the development of her own commerce.

The eight or ten Russians have been removed from the Isle of Serpents by an English ship-of-war, and landed at Odessa. The Russians have reoccupied Anapa and the forts of the Circassian coast. The papers are full of the magnificence of the approaching coronation at Moscow.

Our Liverpool correspondent has received the following dispatch relative to the Mediterranean submarine cable:

MAIN GALLEY, Saturday, 30th.

Arrived here safely; cable and communication perfect; have passed the greatest depth, 2,000 fathoms, nothing reaching bottom to come beyond 1,500 fathoms. Strong currents and far carried up far out of our course, on lee side, that, instead of reaching Galita yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, we arrived there only at 6 in the evening. Orders have already been given for a sufficient length of cable to carry out the line to Bona, which one month from this day. (Signed) BERRY.

ENGLAND AND THE UNITED STATES.

British View of Mr. Marcy's Note Paper on Privateering.

From the London Times, Aug. 21.

* * * After settling the affairs of Turkey, Greece, the Principalities, the Black Sea and the Baltic,—after reviewing the position of Spain and the King of Naples,—the Plenipotentiaries in Paris received on declining some general propositions for the humanizing, as far as possible, of future hostilities. Count WALEWSKI urged that, as the Congress of Paris had established Rules of Warfare, and the Congress of Vienna condemned the Slave trade, on the Commissioners which attended the Congress should not come to an understanding on the subject, for the cause of civilization? Another difficulty, in the last protocol, is in relation to that privateering is and remains abolished, that the neutral flag covers enemy's goods, that the enemy's flag does not condemn to forfeiture neutral goods, and that blockades, to be binding, must be effective. These resolutions, when agreed to by the contracting Powers, were sent to several Governments for their assent, and among them to the Government of the United States. The answer of Mr. MARCY, the American Secretary of State, has lately been published. It is written with no small ability, and will, no doubt, commend the principles of Russian Government. Mr. MARCY points out the obvious logical flaws in the principles enunciated by the Conference. If it be desirable for the sake of humanity, that belligerents shall be respected on one ocean, on land, it must be desirable that the same treatment of enemies should be practiced as well on the water by privateers. The European Governments, therefore, says the Secretary of State, have not consistently carried out their own principle. If private property is to be captured, it must be by some class of vessels which the belligerent States choose to employ. Privateers at sea are analogous to volunteer levies on land, and the United States, which have neither a large army nor a large navy, cannot consent to limit themselves to any form of defence in defending themselves. A correspondence then made of the naval forces of England and France, and it is added that we only regard the protection of our own safety, but even a sense of what is due to the rights of other small naval Powers, obliges the Republic to propose a regulation which should deter any Power from making use of volunteers by sea as well as land.

Now, there is much truth in this, though the European Governments are not so consist

FINANCIAL REFORM ASSOCIATION,
No. 6 York buildings, Dale-st., LIVERPOOL, Aug. 4.

SIR: On behalf of the members of this Association, and on my own, I cannot deny myself the gratification of declaring to you the warm feelings of satisfaction with which we have received the response of the citizens of Philadelphia to the addresses from the citizens of Manchester to the people of the United States. I am sure I may add without presumption, though not officially deputed to speak on their behalf, that these feelings are most cordially shared by the people of Great Britain and Ireland generally. In this belief may I not join the hope that the people of America are also of one mind with the citizens of Philadelphia as to the considerations which ought to render war between the two nations a [illegible]

How, and why was this?

Mr. Sumner, in the admirable address on accepting his nomination as a candidate for the high office in the gift of man, explains the reason. "Unfriendly embarrassments," he says, "are being the results of a secret diplomacy which aims at keeping from the knowledge of the people the operations of the Government."

This is a sown truth, boldly propounded, and worthy of the most serious consideration on the part of the people. The following is the official report of Live Stock passed over the New-York and Erie Railroad, and destined for this market, during the week ending this forenoon:

| | Head. | | Head. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Cattle | 1,157 | Horses | 6 |
| Sheep | 2,428 | Calves | 97 |
| Hogs | 4,444 | Lambs | 44 |

The Beeves at ALLERTON'S were derived from the following States:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Ohio | 1237 | Missouri | — |
| New-York | 848 | Pennsylvania | — |
| Illinois | 490 | Vermont | — |
| Kentucky | 541 | Connecticut | 49 |
| Indiana | 440 | Michigan | — |
| Virginia | — | New-Jersey | — |
| Iowa | — | Wisconsin | — |

Beeves are sold by the estimated dead weight of the four quarters; the so-called "fifth quarter" (hide and tallow) is not reckoned in here, as it is in Boston and some other cities. When Cattle are weighed or estimated alive, the dead weight is reckoned at a certain number of pounds to the 100 lbs. of live weight, as may be agreed upon. The general rule in this market for medium cattle is 56 lbs. to the 100; 44 lbs. being allowed for the "fifth quarter" and offal.

The average prices to-day, as compared with last week, are about 1c.@1¼c. lower.

WE QUOTE:

GENERAL REMARKS UPON THE NEW MARKET.

The receipts foot up pretty for this week, though 248 of the 2,409 reported at 44th-street really belong to last week's receipts, as they came in during last Wednesday, after the report of numbers was made up. Making this change, the actual offering at ALLERTON'S stand for to-day, 2,114, and last week, 2,428. But all were not sold until Friday or Saturday, and a few were held over for this week. This, with the absence of combination among brokers, led to a heavy decline to-day—equal to full 1c., and on some grades 1½c. ℔ pound. Butchery little. Beef sold for more than 10c. Much of that bought last Wednesday for 11c. as they supposed, proved to be 11½c. ℔ pound—to their report. To-day, brokers were anxious to dispose of their Cattle before more—known to be on the way—arrived, and they yielded mostly to the estimated weight of the purchasers who had not forgotten the light Cattle of last week. One other cause of the falling off in price results from the fact that many of the Cattle quoted in last week's sales were really sold before the principal market-day arrived, or at least were bought up by brokers.

About 1,500 Cattle left Buffalo and Albany en route for Brighton, and three car loads were left over at Bergen, the broker not deeming it prudent to offer them.

The general quality of the Cattle offered to-day was not more than medium, although there were a few droves of fine beeves, and still lots of very poor ones, the whole being of rather an even quality.

From the appearance of the yards at 5½ P. M., we judge that very few, if any, would be left over, as they were pretty well cleared out by that time, although some of the sellers called it "giving them away" to take the prices they were obliged to submit to.

For further remarks upon the localities from which the cattle are derived, their quality, &c., and for particular sales and other matters of interest, see the table below, with the special notes following. These tables and notes are generally gathered from a personal inspection of the droves mentioned.

R. Gilbert brought 80 mixed Cattle from Hedge County, Ill., and sold to Miller, Haring & Co., at 9½c. gross. Very nice lot of cattle. Thomas & Hunt were selling them at 9½c.

T. P. Miller brought 100 head of fine cattle from Chenango County, Ohio, which were sold by E. Rose, for 9½c. Home weight, 1,000 lbs. Rose sold to Stout & Smith, at 9½c. and 9¾c. ℔ head. Miller sold to Gold at Albany, at about 9¾c. ℔ head.

Bacon & Stevens had a drove of 120 Indiana cattle, owned by Anthony & Chapman. This was a drove of common Texas, averaging nearly 900 lbs. net, and brought 10c. gross.

D. R. & T. Rose sold at Reed or Orle cattle, owned by M. A. Hinton, of Bucks County, Pa. These were a very nice lot, and brought 11½c.@10c. Sixty head of Ohio cattle were sold by the same parties, at Bergen, at about 9c.

Flint & Dennis had on sale 80 head of Steers from Madison County, Ohio. Home weight about 900 lbs. net. Wm. Bulger was selling them at 8¾c.@9½c.

About 300 head of Cattle were sold at Bergen at 8c.@9½c., or fully 1c. less than last week's quotations. 145 of them by E. T. Gurney.

MILCH COWS WITH CALVES.

Milch Cows are sold at each of the above places, selling with their Calves at their sides. The prices vary somewhat with the supply and demand, and very greatly, of course, upon the milking qualities. The particular fancy of the latter has also created a demand for them. Not unfrequently a Cow is sold at $100@$105, or even $108. The general price throughout the year for ordinary Cows is $60 to $80, or $90. Quite a number sell above $90, and more, perhaps, below $60. We often see apologies for Cows go at $15@$20. The weekly reports from the Washington Grove yards will give the weekly fluctuations.

Notwithstanding the receipts of Milch Cows have been rather larger than the week previous, the supply is not sufficient for the demand, and prices tend upward. Milkmen have to increase their number to keep customers supplied at this season.

ALLERTON reports 30 Milch Cows received during the week. Good cows are scarce and in good demand. None left over. Prices have advanced a little. Three sold to-day for $100, or $33 each.

BROWNSON reports 43 Milch Cows selling about as last week, or from $30@$60 per head. Demand moderate.

CHAMBERLIN reports 17 Milch Cows, selling at $35@$50 for common, $55@$60 for good, and one, $80@$85.

O'BRIEN reports 106 Milch Cows, selling at $35@$60. Sales brisk, and hardly enough to supply the demand.

VEAL CALVES.

Veal Calves are sold by live weight, each animal being weighed alive at the time of sale. The principal places of sale are ALLERTON'S, BROWNSON'S, CHAMBERLIN'S, and O'BRIEN'S.

There is an active demand for Calves, which the supply, although much larger than last week, does not equal. They sell very readily at about ½c. advance over last week's prices.

ALLERTON reports 300 Veal Calves, selling for 6c.@7c., and a few at 7½c. Supply short and selling briskly.

BROWNSON reports 67 Veal Calves, selling generally at 5½c.@6c. Demand fair and all sold at a trifling advance over last week's prices.

CHAMBERLIN reports 112 Veal Calves, selling at 6c.@7½c.

O'BRIEN reports 73 Veal Calves, selling at 6c.@7½c. Short supply, and an advance of ½c. None on hand.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

These are chiefly sold at ALLERTON'S, BROWNSON'S, and CHAMBERLIN'S, at so much ℔ head for a particular lot of Sheep or Lambs, as of the two together. They are also frequently sold by live weight, as this is readily ascertained. The actual prices at the different yards seldom vary greatly. The difference in reported prices is generally due to variation in the quality.

The number of Sheep and Lambs offered the past week was very large, as will be seen by the tables, and former prices were not sustained. This afternoon sales were made with difficulty, and at a falling off of at least 50c. ℔ head. Some lots left over.

ALLERTON reports receipts of 1,000 Sheep and Lambs, which have been bringing fair prices previous to to-day. Sales now dull, or, in the words of a seller, "this is the dullest day we have had this year."

BROWNSON reports receipts of 3,919 Sheep and Lambs. Market fair for good stock; prices range from $1 50 to $6 ℔ head. Quality fair. Receipts from New-York and Ohio; only a few hundred remain unsold. About 100 Sheep on their way to this market were drowned in attempting to swim ashore from the Knickerbocker on Monday night. All were saved and are at this market to-day. G. HALLERT, of Albany, had 108 Sheep on board, and only saved three.

CHAMBERLIN reports receipts of 4,180 Sheep and Lambs, selling at $3@$6 ℔ head.

Philadelphia Cattle Market.

PHILADELPHIA, Wednesday, Sept. 3, 1856.

The Beef market was much better supplied yesterday and to-day, than the previous week, and there was a slight decline in the price of this kind of stock.

BEEF CATTLE.—The offerings and sale of Beeves amounted to 1,097 head, the owners of which were divided among several States, as follows: 778 Pennsylvania, 146 from Ohio, 123 Virginia, and 50 from Maryland. Most of the Pennsylvania Cattle were from Chester County, and they brought from $9 50@$10 ℔ 100 lbs. A lot of extra brought $10 25; 19 head of Ohio cattle sold at from $9 50@$9 75, and this was the highest figure realized. Common and middling sold at from $7 50@$9 ℔ 100 lbs.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.—The offerings, reached 5,000 head, but only 2,000 were disposed of at prices ranging from $3 50 to $4 25 each. One lot of 400, from Ohio, sold at from $3 25 to $3 ℔ head, and 300 from Indiana were disposed of at $3 25.

HOGS.—This market was very well supplied, and 1,600 head were taken sold, at from $7 75 to $8 50 ℔ 100 lbs.

COWS AND CALVES.—The supply of this kind of stock was rather better than for some weeks; 300 were sold, at from $35 to $50 for Fresh Cows, $40 to $55 for Springers, and $35 to $55 for Weaders.

MARKET REPORTS.

Wholesale Produce Markets.

Reported exclusively for the Daily Times.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, Sept. 3, 1856.

The prices given in our reports from week to week are the average wholesale prices obtained by producers, and not those at which produce is sold from the market. The quotations are guided chiefly by the qualities of the articles.

There have been no important changes in the produce market during the past week.

Upon the whole, we have a very good supply of both vegetables and fruits, with the exception of peaches, which are from home scarcely advancing upon previous high prices. Although apples are high, yet the trade in them is active, especially among those who can afford to buy at three dollars per barrel.

The market for dry goods has been quiet during the week, in consequence of many of the jobbers being out of town, and generally speaking, the business transacted has been confined to small parcels of staples, for immediate wants, and to the filling up of assortments. Prices have been very firm, and there is a tolerably good feeling among the trade, in view of the fact that the stocks of goods in the hands of jobbers are not large, and that there is a good demand for the fall trade, which will commence in a few days. The sales of Cotton Goods have been quite limited, and prices have ruled very firm. Sales of Prints have been made at 4c. for Allens, and 4½c. for Cocheco, Merrimac, and Hamilton. Brown Sheetings have been in good request, and we quote Lawrence, 4c.; Indian Head, 4½c.; Atlantic A, 5c.; Atlantic H, 4½c.; Richmond, 4c.; Richmond, 4½c.; Richmond, 5c.; Richmond, 5½c.; Richmond, 6c.; Richmond, 6½c.; Richmond, 7c.; Richmond, 7½c.; Richmond, 8c.; Richmond, 8½c.; Richmond, 9c.; Richmond, 9½c.; Richmond, 10c.; Richmond, 10½c.; Richmond, 11c.; Richmond, 11½c.; Richmond, 12c.; Richmond, 12½c.; Richmond, 13c.; Richmond, 13½c.; Richmond,

To Correspondents.

[illegible]

The Massachusetts Whig State Convention met in Boston yesterday, and nominated a ticket for State Officers. Among the resolutions adopted was one expressing a decided preference for FILLMORE for the Presidency. Dr. LUTHER BELL, of Somerville, was selected as a candidate for Governor, and HORACE FOOTE, of Springfield, for Lieutenant-Governor.

Hon. JOSIAH QUINCY has written a letter reviewing Mr. CHASE's epistle to the Whigs of Maine. He is particularly sarcastic upon Mr. CHASE's assumption that the Republican Party is the representative of a geographical section, and retorts by asserting that slaveholders are a class and do not represent a geographical section.

News From Europe.

The Cunard steamer Persia, with Liverpool and London dates to the 23d ult., one week later, arrived at this port yesterday. A rumor—for we can call it little else—prevailed, at the time the Persia left, that France and England had addressed an ultimatum to the Neapolitan Government, and that, in the event of a refusal to comply with their demands, their representatives were immediately to quit Naples. This report, we should add, is not generally credited. Still, the hostile attitude of France and England does not seem to affect the King of Naples, except, perhaps, to make him more perverse in his despotism. In answer to the threats of the two Powers, King BOMBA assumes a defiant attitude, and asks by what authority they dare to interfere in the internal government of his Kingdom? He, too, threatens, and says, in his last note, that, if this attack on his independence is pressed any further, he will appeal to the patriotism of his people, and, "trusting in his brave and faithful army, will repel force by force." Over this warlike reply of King BOMBA the London press grows mightily indignant, and the Times warns the Neapolitan monarch that even now the opportunity for conciliation has passed away.

The difficulty between Russia and the Allies, in regard to the occupation of Kars and the Isle of Serpents, seems to be in a fair way of settlement. Russia promises that Kars shall be evacuated within the six months specified by the Congress of Paris, and the eight or ten Russian soldiers who held possession of Serpent's Isle have been removed from thence by an English ship of war, and have been landed in Odessa.

The London press publishes and comments upon Mr. MARCY's recent State paper on the doctrine of privateering, as promulgated by the Congress of Paris and submitted to the great powers of the world. Most of the English journals support the American view, that private property, in time of war, should be respected by men-of-war, as well as by privateers. The London Post (Ministerial) is the only paper that opposes the principle laid down by Mr. MARCY. Several extracts on this subject from the British journals are published in this morning's Times.

From Spain we have nothing of importance. The difficulty with Mexico is said to be still unsettled.

Harvest reports from various quarters of Great Britain and Ireland are unfavorable. Recent rains have occasioned a great deal of damage. In Ireland the disease in the potato had again appeared, and within a few days had destroyed this vegetable throughout entire districts.

Among the miscellaneous news received by this arrival will be found an account of a desperate skirmish between a Prussian corvette and a large body of native pirates, on the coast of Morocco. Prince ADALBERT, of Prussia, who commanded the vessel, was severely wounded, besides twenty others more or less injured, out of a crew of seventy-five. Eight were killed. This incident has revived the talk of a European expedition against the pirates of the Morocco Coast, and to carry out which Prussia has asked the aid of England and France.

The Queen Dowager of Oude had arrived in England to plead her son's cause for the restoration of his Kingdom. An amusing account of the landing at Southampton of Her Majesty, her suite, her canucks, and her royal flag and baggage, is published elsewhere, and will doubtless be a gratification for the curious to read.

Mayor Wood's Letter.

The letter of Mayor WOOD, which we published yesterday morning, is a curious document. Its main object is to show how Mayor WOOD has been thwarted in all his efforts to reform City abuses, by other City officials;—and it concludes, after showing that the Mayor has, under existing laws, no power to secure or enforce good government, by accepting a nomination for reelection tendered him by fifteen or twenty gentlemen of a class who have never taken any very active part in City politics, but who express the opinion that at the next session of the Legislature greater powers will be conferred upon the Mayor of the City of New-York. Without waiting, therefore, for the action of any political party,—indeed with the evident purpose of forestalling any such action, Mayor WOOD makes haste to declare himself a candidate for reelection.

The official experience of the Mayor has been not a little remarkable. Previous to his nomination he was universally known to be one of the most ardent, zealous and unscrupulous party politicians in the State and in the country. His personal integrity was furthermore impeached by charges of the most serious character, formidably sustained and inadequately answered. He was nominated by a Convention of Democratic delegates, as a party Democrat. He joined the Know-Nothing Order and was also a candidate in their Convention; but failing to receive it, he abandoned the party and denounced its principles and objects. These are facts which, we believe, have never been denied. It is not singular that they should have created a very strong public distrust concerning his fitness for the position;—and when he was known to have been elected by a very small majority the general sentiment was one of regret.

Upon assuming the duties of his office, however, Mr. WOOD made an ostentatious proclamation of his purpose to consult exclusively the public good in the administration of its affairs,—and declared his intention to exercise not only the authority clearly vested in him, but even "doubtful powers" for the attainment of that end. His bold promises on this subject excited a good deal of astonishment and admiration. The merchants, bankers, and others who had been most distrustful of him, became all at once his warmest admirers;—and on every side there was manifested the utmost eagerness to support and second him in the great crusade upon which, with such a flourish of trumpets he had entered. No Mayor ever before found himself so popular or clothed with so much power to effect reforms. Many of his acts corresponded with his professions. He did accomplish some reforms; we do not doubt he needed support from other quarters which he did not get;—and we think it quite likely that he has reason to complain that aid was withheld which ought to have been extended to him.

But we do not consider this to be the true reason of his failure,—for failure it is,—in the City Government. We think there has grown upon the public mind a conviction of his insincerity,—of his disposition to use the powers of his office for party purposes, and of his personal ambition being decidedly stronger than his regard for the public good. His efforts at reform were suspiciously ostentatious. He attacked only those evils which had attracted public notice, and he did it in a way rather to excite comment than to secure reform. Dragging a score or two of unhappy girls from Broadway to the Tombs,—and issuing exultant bulletins over the poor exploit, while houses of prostitution blazed in every street with the splendor of their spoils, seemed a very ineffectual mode of ridding the City of this great evil. The two or three gamblers who were indicted, seemed to have been made scapegoats for the thousands who were left unmolested. Besides this, it was apparent that, in spite of his repeated protestations that politics should have no place in his administration, political considerations did nevertheless control his action. The Police Department continued to be filled with political partisans, and it was notorious that appointments in this and in other departments, had never been more rigidly political than under his administration. The worst abuses of former days, in this respect, were continued;—and some man now hold office under Mayor WOOD, whose sole claim to an appointment was the political service they had rendered. As the Presidential election drew nigh, the Mayor's purpose to take an active part in it became more and more manifest, and he finally declared his intention to use all the means at his command for the advancement of party objects. The public had been encouraged to believe that in his zeal for the reform of abuses in the City government, he had abandoned party politics. It was the destruction of this belief,—and the conviction that his partisanship was, after all, his ruling passion, and that all the power in his hands would be used for party ends, that induced the Legislature to reject his appeal for enlarged control in the affairs of the City government. It is not necessary to go into any detailed enumeration of the circumstances that led to this conviction. That it exists deeply and widely in the public mind, is in our judgment clearly shown by the lack of public confidence and support of which he makes complaint.

Mayor WOOD's acceptance of this nomination we regard as an effort to constrain the Democratic Party again to make him its candidate. Whether it will prove successful, remains to be seen.

Democratic Desperation.

When the Democrats appeal to the Whigs for help, they must consider themselves in a very desperate condition indeed. The Buchanan men must be terribly alarmed, or they would not be calling upon the Old-Line Whigs to come over and aid them to elect their candidate. The Washington Union, of yesterday, says:—"We this day, then, appeal to our friends everywhere—the friends of the Union, the Old-Line and patriotic Whigs, of every well-fought field—to come up to the work of saving our country from the political ambition of the worst combination of men who have been known since the days of CATILINE and ROBESPIERRE."

[illegible] American Party has a stronger hold than in Connecticut. But it would be a great mistake to suppose that, either in that State or in any other, the great body of those who joined that party for the correction of the evils which gave birth to it, will permit themselves to be used for the extension of Slavery by the men who control its machinery. As an indication of the state of feeling among the Americans of Connecticut, we give the following statement which was prepared by the President of the American Council in one of the towns of Windham County, after a careful canvass of every Council in the County, and which gives in the first column the number of members belonging to the Council, and in the second the number of those members who declare their intention to vote for FILLMORE:

| Town Council. | Members. | Fillmore. |
|---|---|---|
| Pomfret | 125 | 124 |
| Brooklyn | 105 | 104 |
| Hampton | 62 | 62 |
| Plainfield | 175 | 165 |
| Sterling | 80 | 70 |
| Valentem | 68 | 60 |
| Canterbury | 140 | 140 |
| Killingly | 270 | 270 |
| Windham | 225 | 220 |
| Chaplyn | 60 | 60 |
| Eastford | 50 | 48 |
| Putnam and Thompson | 300 | 275 |
| Woodstock | 280 | 225 |

This statement shows conclusively that the Americans of Connecticut have sacrificed nothing of their devotion to Liberty in their desire to reform the abuses of our naturalization laws. While they maintain their organization and cherish the principles on which it rests with undiminished zeal, they do not suffer themselves to be betrayed into aiding the extension of Slavery. So it will be throughout New-England, New-York, Pennsylvania and all the Western States. Thousands and tens of thousands who are members of the American organization, are also friends of Freedom, and will surrender neither principle in the pending canvass. They know that in the Southern States, members of the American Order will vote almost en masse for Mr. BUCHANAN,—not because they abandon their American principles, but because they hold these subordinate to the interest of Slavery: and Northern members will themselve sclaim and exercise the same right to sustain the interests of Freedom, without thereby abandoning or compromising their principles on other subjects. The refusal of the State Council of Pennsylvania to indorse the Fillmore and Donelson ticket, shows that in that State members of the American Party intend to act upon their own convictions in regard to the extension of Slavery. The same thing will prove true throughout the Northern States.

Political Retribution.

One of the most striking illustrations we have lately seen of the Eastern proverb, that curses, like chickens, come home to roost, is exhibited by the transformation of the Albany State Register into a supporter of the Republican candidate. The Register, as is well known, was started by Mr. FILLMORE's friends in this State, in the year 1851, as the organ of the Hard-Shell faction of the Whig Party. Mr. FILLMORE himself was among the subscribers to the fund for starting the Register; but, in spite of the influential and wealthy gentlemen who gave their money and influence to maintain their organ, like all similar enterprises, it drooped for lack of that confidence on the part of the public, without which no paper ever did or ever ought to succeed. It has at last fallen into the possession of a proprietor who now uses it as a battering ram against the very parties who built it up; and in justice to its present conductor, we are compelled to say that it has never before given such manifestations of vital energy as since he assumed the management of it. Mr. SCOVILLE, the present Editor of the Register, has published a list of the contributors to the fund for its establishment, among whom we find the name of Mr. FILLMORE, then President of the United States, credited with the sum of one hundred dollars; of N. K. HALL, at that time Postmaster-General, for just double that sum, and again F. GRANGER and M. FILLMORE, jointly, for one thousand dollars. The Custom-House was put under contributions to the amount of twenty-six hundred dollars. The present publisher of the Register, with the very refinement of cruelty, insists that the originators of the paper shall continue to receive it, and will not stop sending it to them. Mr. FILLMORE must feel, if he reads the paper now, somewhat like BYRON's Eagle:

"—No more through rolling clouds to soar again,
Viewed his own feather on the fatal dart
Which winged the shaft that quivered in his heart.
Keen were his pangs, but keener far to feel,
He nursed the pinion (gave the money) that impelled the steel."

Aspiring politicians should lay the moral of the fate of the Register to heart, and bear in mind that, if no established newspaper is willing to support their cause voluntarily, it will be useless to hire them to do it. Newspaper support is only valuable when it is not purchasable.

The Ovation to Bully Brooks.

We trust that no one into whose hands our paper falls to-day, will fail to read the account of the ovation to Bully BROOKS, at Columbia, which we extract from the Carolina Times. Of course, its authenticity cannot be questioned, though it is difficult to believe that such a scene could have been enacted in one of the Original States of our Union. Here is a man returning home to his constituents, after having committed a ruffianly act for which he was fined in a criminal court, and a majority of the members of Congress decided him unworthy to sit among them as an equal; but he is received by the people of his State with the highest honors they can bestow upon him, and complimented with costly presents, as though he had rendered some important service to the country instead of affixing a foul stain upon its honor. But the most remarkable part of the affair is the speech of BROOKS himself, which is as good a Republican document as need be desired; for every thinking man will naturally say, that if the election of BUCHANAN is to give power to a party that honors BROOKS as its representative, [illegible] should be elected—

"It was his deliberate opinion that on the 4th of March next the people of the South should rise in their might, march to Washington, and seize the archives and the Treasury of the Government."

That is the kind of feeling which is to be nursed into power by the election of BROOKS' candidate, and the manner in which power would be wielded by that party may be inferred from the following candid avowal:

"He rather wished the Army Appropriation bill would not pass, because it would effect the removal of the United States soldiers from Kansas and leave the people of the South free to go there and cut the throats of LANE and his Abolition comrades."

BROOKS by himself is of no great account, and neither his ruffianism nor his rarings would be entitled to a passing notice beyond what we bestow upon any other disturber of the public peace; but BROOKS as the representative of a sovereign State, their acknowledged champion, and the advocate of a Presidential candidate, is quite another matter.

Good News for the Farmer.

It is not a month since we congratulated the country on the result of another glorious Grain harvest throughout the Union. It was then predicted that France and England would again have extensive recourse to our overflowing granaries, as in 1855, although their own harvest might promise fair. The accounts received by the Persia yesterday bring the evidences of this demand much earlier than we had anticipated, and although fair allowance should still be made for the sudden and frequent changes in the English harvest weather, which in the end may prove favorable to an average yield, there is scarcely a remaining doubt that the general supply throughout Europe will fall short of the wants and ability of the people to consume good bread unless the United States be largely drawn upon. This remark applies more particularly to Wheat and Flour. There is another feature in the present news of the highest importance to the American farmer, and to our Railway lines employed in the transportation of Breadstuffs. The Potato disease has reappeared in Ireland and in some districts of England, and, the fact having been made known in Liverpool, an immediate rise occurred in Indian Corn, of which the United States enjoy almost the exclusive supply to the British ports. As a substitute for the Potato, it was found of the utmost importance during the Irish famine of 1847, and, since then, has not only grown in favor for Bread, but, in England, for Cattle feed also. As this is the first news of the injury to the Potato, it will, of course, be acted upon with some degree of caution until further accounts of the arrest or progress of the disease. The chances are, however, that in England, where the sensitiveness on the food supply is so great, the present advance on Indian Corn will be well supported until all apprehension shall have been completely removed. And this will give our farmers good prices for an important staple, and our Railways at the West a large addition to their freight traffic, in an article which can only pay the charges for transportation by Railway when prices are well up.

Safety of the Arabia.

We are happy to learn that the Arabia has been heard from so near her port that there can be no doubt of her safe arrival in Liverpool. The Persia reports having spoken her inside of Cape Clear, on Sunday, the 24th ult., so that she would arrive in the Mersey the next day.

The Meat Markets.

The surplus of Beef cattle last week, with another large supply for the present week, and the absence of any combination among the brokers, reduced the prices of beef very materially yesterday. But very few of the very best cattle brought over 8c. ⅌ lb. for the dressed carcasses, while a large number of very good quality were sold from 9c. @ 9½c., and many of medium quality went below 8c. As we have all along stated, there is no deficiency of cattle in the country, and except on chance days when temporary causes exert a special influence, there is no immediate prospect of higher prices than have been obtained this week. The supply of Mutton is about on a par with the demand, and prices have not materially changed.

We learn that Hon. ANSON BURLINGAME, of Mass., is under an engagement to address the Young Men's Rocky Mountain Club of the Fifteenth Ward, on the 11th inst. There is no man now prominent in political affairs who would be likely to attract a larger audience; and the gallant gentleman from Massachusetts will be greeted heartily by the young Republicans of New-York.

GEORGE W. WEBBER, Esq., of the firm of PALMER, COOK & Co., has published a card denying that Col. FREMONT is in any manner connected with that firm.

Academy of Music.

Old operas certainly draw well, DONIZETTI's especially. There was a splendid house last night to witness the inimitable "Lucia," a good tempered and critical house too, if those two opposite elements can be combined in an audience. The feature of the evening was of course the début of the new tenor Signor TIBERINI, a gentleman concerning whom rumor has been busy, and romance too, for that matter. The Signor is not inexperienced in the kind of ordeal that he went through last night, having already delighted in three or four leading musical cities. The task, however, must have been more difficult here, on account of the ancestral exigencies to which tenors are exposed. For instance, last night Signor TIBERINI had not only to support a heavy rôle, but a weighty pedigree. Considering the ponderosity of the latter, it is really creditable that a moderate sized man got through so bravely. Seriously, Signor TIBERINI succeeded in making a very favorable impression last night. He is an artist of merit; with a voice of the robust kind, excellently trained, and thoroughly under control. He can do more with a somewhat thin organ than most artists with greater powers, precisely because he knows the length, depth, and breadth of his capacities. Signor TIBERINI may be ranked with BRIGNOLI and BOSTICA, but is not, we think, likely to supplant either of those artists in the public regard.

The Opera was only moderately given; the finale to the second act being especially weak.

HARVARD COLLEGE.—The academical year began on Thursday last. The class which has just entered numbers 126—the largest ever admitted. The work of erecting the new College Chapel, with the receipts of the legacy of the late SAMUEL APPLETON, has begun, and the granite foundation is nearly completed.

The Newburyport Herald reports that the blue fish, the enemy of all other fishes, have filled the waters, driving away cod, mackerel and all others usually found in that vicinity. It is blue fishing or nothing now.

On Monday, Aug. 17, Bishop HOPKINS, of Vermont, officiated in St. Paul's, Burlington, assisted by three of his sons in Holy Orders, one of them being a Priest, and two Deacons.

Brown University Commencement.

The Phi Beta Kappa of Brown University have elected BENJ. F. THOMAS, of Worcester, Mass., President.

The following gentlemen were elected members of the Society, viz.: CHARLES HARE, Esq., Class of 1841; ASA MERRIAM GARDNER, A. M., Class of 1841; CHARLES M. ALLEN, M. D., Class of 1847; EDWARD H. MAGILL, Class of 1856. The Orator was Rev. Dr. HUNTINGTON.

The Literary Societies were disappointed in their Poet, WM. C. RICHARDS, who did not appear.

The address before the Society of Missionary Inquiry was delivered by Rev. E. G. BEURSELE, D. D., Professor of Theology in Rochester University, New-York.

The Triennial Catalogue of the graduates of Brown University states the whole number enrolled on the lists of the University 3,324, of whom 1,309 are regular graduates, and 415 medical and honorary. Of this number, 981 are no longer among the living. The members of the first eleven classes have all disappeared, and we meet no name on the list without a star, to indicate decease, till we reach the class of 1766, where that of EZEKIEL FRANKLIN stands alone; and from 1766 to 1790, the solitary name of EZE KIEL stands unstarred among the successive classes. The class of 1801, for example, has lost nearly half its members, while that of 1826 numbers but five stars among its thirty names. The classes of 1836 and 1846 have lost but a single member each, while the classes of 1847 and 1849 have together lost twelve.

A Runaway Team.

[illegible]

WILLIAM DUNN, one of the drivers of a Madison-avenue and Washington-street stage, was very seriously injured between 12 and 1 yesterday morning by being thrown from his box to the pavement. While turning the corner of Madison-avenue and Nineteenth-street, one of the hind wheels came off, which caused the vehicle to capsize, so suddenly that the driver was precipitated from his seat to the pavement with great violence. He was taken up insensible, and was conveyed by the City Hospital by officers CONRAD and CHAPMAN of the Seventh Ward, and died soon afterwards.

[illegible] OVER A WOMAN.

A carman named John Taylor was brought before Justice WOOD, at the Essex Market Police Court, yesterday morning, on a charge of reckless driving, &c. The prisoner, while driving at a rapid pace through one of the streets of the Tenth Ward, ran over MRS. Christiana Brown, residing at No. 80 Sheriff-street. He was committed for examination.

BAD THREE TIMES BROKEN.

Two boys, named THOS. ROSEBOUGH and WILLIAM MANSELL, each aged about 7 years, while playing on a pile of timber in Thirty-fifth-street, between Ninth and Tenth avenues, about 6 o'clock on Tuesday night, had their legs broken by the fall upon them of a portion of the timber. One was taken to his home, and the other was conveyed to Bellevue Hospital.

[illegible] ON THE HARLEM RAILROAD.

An unknown woman was run over and killed on the Harlem Railroad, near Fifty-seventh-street, about 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. She was struck on the head by the 6 o'clock train from the City, and died instantly afterwards. The body was conveyed to the Eighteenth Ward Station-house. It appears that deceased was intoxicated, and either fell or laid down upon the track. She was about 35 years of age, and had on a calico frock and hood.

ARREST OF MR. LEAKE.

Mr. William Leake, of the Metropolitan Hotel, was arrested yesterday, and brought on the Lower Police Court, for the assault committed by him the previous evening upon Col. Thompson, one of the Governor's Aids. The case will be examined to-day.

[illegible] Man.

To the Editor of the New-York Daily Times:

In your account of the arrest of C. W. Bufford and a dozen others you give the credit of the arrest to the police—just where it does not belong. The facts were as follows: On the 19th of August Bufford extracted Freeman & Bennett out of watches and jewelry to the amount of $600. On the same day Mr. Freeman called on Messrs. Seymour, Hoyt & Co., jewelers, corner of Fulton and Pearl streets, and described the swindler, with the request that Mr. Seymour should be sent for if the swindler should appear there. On Monday morning Bufford turned up at Messrs. Seymour, Hoyt & Co.'s store, and bought two gold watches, [illegible] "fill his order" as usual. Mr. Hoyt was [illegible] by Mr. Freeman, by whom he was identified and arrested in the bar-room of the United States Hotel—without the assistance of any policeman. X.

Decision in Admiralty.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

Judge HALE has sent down a decision in the following case, heard before him in April last:

Joel Bunker vs. The Brig John Gibbons.—This suit was brought to recover the sum of about $600, for supplies alleged to have been furnished to the brig. The libel alleged that the brig, in the year 1850, put into St. George's, in Maine, where repairs were done to her at the request of Peter Anderson, her master and owner, by a Mr. Gilman; that the brig then went to Boston, where Gilman was about to take necessary repairs, but to enforce his claim, and [illegible] applied for the libelant to furnish her with the supplies which he did, and was afterwards compelled to pay it. And the libelant claimed a lien on the brig for the amount of the supplies, as for a bill of supplies furnished to her by him in Boston, amounting, to $600.

Wood & Putnam, the claimants of the brig, for answer, alleged that they afterwards bought her in St. John's, her home port, being assured by Anderson that there was no lien upon her, and they denied that the libelant had any claim against her for any account whatever.

Evidence was given on both sides as to the transaction in Boston, quite contradictory, Anderson testifying that he gave the libelant his note for $600, which the libelant was not to enforce in case the note indorsed by him was paid, and which he still held; and that libelant's witnesses testifying that it was expressly agreed that he should have a lien on the brig for the amount of the note.

The Court gave a decree in favor of the libelant for the amount of the note, without costs to either party.

For Libelant—Mr. Van Tassel. For claimants—Messrs. Benedict, Noyes and Crocker.

The Courts.

SURROGATE'S COURT—Wednesday, Sept. 3.

Before Hon. J. W. Bradford, Surrogate.

THE CONTEST IN THE BRADY CASE.

This celebrated case came up before His Honor the Surrogate on an application to reopen the decree, to allow of the production of additional testimony by the French heir.

Application was first made to allow the counsel of the Lajeunies (French heirs) the same sum as to the counsel of Forney. The counsel, in presenting his claim, presented his petition to show the impossibility of their claim at the commencement of the suit. The application was opposed on the ground that the Public Administrator being party to the contest, it was not necessary for the French heirs to have interfered, as he would have protected their interests. Mr. Bell, in presenting this view of the case, spoke particularly against the claims of Mr. Whitehead, who he now understood was of counsel and who had, while absent and in favor of his client, accepted the post on the commission to France.

Mr. Jay was replying, when the Surrogate remarked that as he should decide on the merits of the case and not on the position of the parties, it was uncalled for to offer such remarks.

An affidavit of Mr. Lajeunies, now in this City, to prosecute the claim of his family, was presented. In effect it sets forth that he is of poor estate, a baker by trade, and has borrowed money to carry on the cause.

The question of opening the decision then came up. Mr. Cutting stated that the evidence referred to consisted of the declaration of deceased to an intimate friend that she was never married in France, but that she had a child born to her, which she had adopted. Was dead. It was agreed that as the Surrogate in his decision relied mainly upon the record of the act of baptism, he (Mr. Cutting) thought it necessary to procure the testimony on this point, the more especially as it was evident that the testimony of Madame DeLux during her life-time could not be taken upon because of their conflicting views.

Mr. Bell remarked that since the return of the commissioner, Mr. Gerlach, one of Mathieu's, formerly counsel, had informed him that Mr. Bonnet, who formerly testify after long pause, if this case was to come before the Surrogate in further shape, in direct contradiction to the evidence of Gerlach, which he would only give for a consideration.

The counsel for Forney was objected to by counsel for the Lajeunies, who urged that the petition of the [illegible] Administrator and chief petitioner is granted; that he has proved his legitimacy [illegible] and that as the Will of [illegible] was [illegible] and [illegible] the Surrogate was [illegible] to [illegible] should only allow certain parties to administer under bonds, the divisions of the estate standing [illegible]

Wednesday, Sept. 3—P. M.

The Persia steamship from Liverpool, Saturday, August 20, arrived at this port early this morning. Her trade accounts are chiefly important for the turn advised in Breadstuffs, which have gone up at Mark Lane, London, 6 shillings the quarter on Wheat, from the lowest point, and 4 shillings since the previous steamer. The advance was the result of less promising harvest weather, a great deal of rain having interfered with the ingathering of the crop. In Flour the rise is not in proportion, though the figures for Ohio brands had reached 37 shillings in London, and 35 shillings in Liverpool; Western Canal 33@35 shillings, and Canadian 35@37 shillings. These prices for parcels in prime condition. Much of the American Flour, State brands as known here, or Western Canal as in Liverpool, was arriving out of order, and sold from 22 to 30 shillings. The deliveries of English grown Wheat for the week ending 13th August, are officially reported 44,062 quarters, the average 71s. The advance after this report was 2s. on Monday, 12th, and 2s.@3s. on Friday, 22d, bringing up the price to 75s.@76s. A large parcel of new Wheat from the South, landed in good condition at Liverpool, sold at 10s. 3d. for the red, and from 10s. 9d. up to 11s. 6d. for the white. Indian Corn advanced to 34s.@35s. the quarter, on the reports of the reappearance of the Potato disease in Ireland. The day the steamer sailed the weather was better for the English harvest, but speculators continued busy in the market for Indian Corn. The Cotton trade continued steady, and without excitement, at previous figures. The manufacturing districts were generally doing well.

The financial advices represent discounts as easier, and the funds steady. Consols 95¼ ⅌ cent, in London; the 3 ⅌ cent. Rente 70.85 at Paris. One of the English Railways, the Great Western, advanced 2½ ⅌ cent., closing at 66@66¼, against 63¾@¾ the week previous. The French Crédit Mobilier stood 1,625 francs the share. But little doing in the American funds. Messrs. Robert Benson & Co. write:

"Money has been more plentiful, and the greater ease has been more marked to-day than in the early part of the week. In the general discount market the rates are a little under the minimum charge of the Bank of England, and for short loans on securities the extreme rates of interest can scarcely be obtained. The weather during the whole week has been very unfavorable for our harvest. This has checked the more buoyant tone of feeling that might otherwise have been looked for in our Stock Market, which has generally been very inactive during the week. Consols have remained almost [illegible] and we to-day quote [illegible] and 95¾@96 for 28th September. We have not heard of any transactions in United States or State securities, but [illegible] lower prices. There have been transactions in Pennsylvania 1st mortgage Bonds at 90¼, and 2d mortgage Sterling Bonds at 90. Erie 5d mortgage at 67¾@67¾ ex Coupon, and the Sinking Fund Bonds at 84¾. Michigan Central 1869 Bonds at 91¾ ex Coupon; and the Bonds of 1860 at 94¾. Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Sinking Fund Bonds at 81. Illinois Central 5 ⅌ cent. Bonds at 89¼ ex. Int. to the $1½ ⅌ cents at 94¾, and the Freeland Bonds at 90 with privilege. The shares of the Company have been sold at 5¾ premium. The Manchester Market has been rather quieter. But spinners and manufacturers are so well under engagement, as to prevent any general noticeable decline in prices. The Liverpool Cotton Market has been inanimate during the week and closes dull at a decline of ⅛d. with sales for the week of about 47,000 bales. The Corn Markets have been influenced by the unfavorable state of the weather, and prices generally are higher. We may quote an advance of about 2s. a quarter on Indian Corn, of 1s. 6d.@2s. ⅌ sack and barrel on Flour, and 2d. ⅌ 70 lbs. on Wheat. We have no particular change to notice in the price of Rails. Owing to a curtailment in the manufactures, arising from the hot weather, rather higher prices have in some instances been paid. The current quotation for cash is still 23."

The latest news of the London Money Market is reported in the Morning Post of Saturday: "Notwithstanding the still [illegible] state of the weather, and the advance in [illegible] of wheat at Mark-lane, the market for gold has exhibited more firmness than on any previous day of this week. The active cause of [illegible] is alleged to be a favorable Bank return for the week ending on Saturday last, coupled with the purchase of stock, understood to be on [illegible] of the savings banks, the combined influence of which has been sufficient not only to counteract the depressive effect of the rise in the value of [illegible] and the state of the weather, but to give a slight impetus to prices in an upward direction. The [illegible] is very general that the worst period of pressure in the money market has passed; although another instalment on the loan will [illegible] next week, it will absorb only £600,000, and [illegible] apparently does not excite much attention, or [illegible] much preparation, in the monetary circles [illegible]

The French Grain advices are somewhat conflicting, being favorable to a good crop in the North, with lower prices for Wheat in Paris, and less favorable from the South. We notice that in Liverpool that the accounts from the South of France and Spain and Portugal entered considerably into the calculations of the speculators. On the other hand the French Echo Agricole says of the Northern crop:

"In the departments north of the Loire a fine season for saving the harvest has not been known for years. Wheat was never drier. In all the most productive departments of France the sheaves are extremely abundant, and, although the ears do not yield so much as was expected, the quantity of sheaves assures a large produce ⅌ hectare. Thus, in all the region of France extending from the banks of the Loire to the Belgian frontier, it is calculated that the average number of sheaves ⅌ hectare exceeds that of 1858 by 150 to 200. The yield of each sheaf being at least equal to that of last year, the quantity of Wheat reaped in 1859 will consequently be superior by three or four hectolitres ⅌ hectare to that of 1858. In the North this augmentation in the produce may be fairly calculated at from 3,000,000 to 10,000,000 hectolitres."

In our own Grain Market to-day the advance in Wheat, on the present news being made known, was 3 to 5 cents the bushel, and in Corn a rise of 5 cents, with a very large business. Flour is 10@15 cents dearer for shipping brands.

The supply of Money in Wall-street was easy to-day both to the Stock and Discount Brokers, and the offering of first-class paper outside of Bank not so free as earlier in the week. The rates, however, are unchanged, 8½ to 10 ⅌ cent. as in time. There is comparatively but little very short paper, prime signatures, offered through the Discount Brokers. Six and eight months bills, No. 1, go from 9 to 10 ⅌ cent.; fair or second grade names 12 ⅌ cent. Exchange closed easy for the Africa. The Shipment of Specie amounted to $680,949. The English advices by the Persia are deemed particularly encouraging for Grain and Flour bills throughout the Autumn, for though the market prices on the other side may fluctuate widely, the opinion that we are to have a good demand at fair rates is greatly strengthened by the arrival. The money news is not unfavorable. Discounts were something cheaper and the general demand moderate at 4¾@5¼, the outside quotation being the Bank rate. The season continued dull for American Stocks, and sales, where proved, were made at a concession, though the business for the week was almost nominal. Our Sub-Treasury to-day disbursed $401,486, against $196,071 receipts from all sources. Balance to the credit of all accounts this afternoon $18,461,786.

The Stock Market showed a little more firmness and closed with a steady feeling on the Railroad list, and at an advance of ¼@¾ ⅌ cent. on Tuesday's prices. The last sale of Erie 59¼ and 59¾ bid; New-York Central, 89; Rock Island, 94@93¾; Panama, 90¾; Toledo, 74¾; Reading, 84¾; Illinois Central Bonds 91, and the Scrip 109. A heavy business was done in Erie through the day, the aggregate sales about 7,500 shares. The Western Roads generally firm. The Grain news from Europe is particularly promising for a heavy freight traffic on the Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin lines. At the advanced price for Indian Corn an enormous business can be afforded from the prairies and the valley of the Wabash.

Mr. George Peabody, the eminent American merchant-banker in London, sails to-day from Liverpool on board the Atlantic, on a visit to his native country, after an absence of nearly twenty years. The good offices of courtesy and hospitality which he invariably extends to his countrymen when in London, and the generous pride and unstinted munificence with which he keeps up abroad the associations that cluster around our National Anniversary, render him worthy of all honor on the occasion of this visit. Our New-York merchants will, of course, be the first to give him hearty welcome. The initiative steps were taken to-day; a meeting convened, and a preliminary Committee of Arrangements appointed to carry out their wishes. Mr. Tilleston, Mr. H. A. Coit, Mr. Soutter, Mr. Sherman and Mr. R. Bell, we believe, constitute this Committee. Mr. Charles Augustus Davis presided at the meeting.

We have made the foregoing compilation from the latest Frankfort returns, based on the calculations of four and five-sixths miles English to the German mile, and 42 cents to the guilder of Frankfort. From partial separate returns of freight and passenger traffic, we find the proportions 32 ⅌ cent. passenger and 68 ⅌ cent. freight. The average earning ⅌ mile for six months is $6,702, which is considerably below the English and American averages on the great lines. The same feature, however, is remarked in all three systems this year: an increase of traffic ranging in England from 7 to 12 ⅌ cent., in Germany from 10 to 20 ⅌ cent., and in the United States from 20 to 25 ⅌ cent. on the business of last year. The latest weekly returns just to hand by the Persia from the English lines, including also the Scotch and Irish, show as follows:

We published yesterday a card from the recently-galvanized Commercial Bank of Perth Amboy, N. J., which should have been accompanied by a repetition of the warning to the public not to encourage its circulating notes.
